Walking Permission

Whenever the weather allows, Kids Kampus staff will take your child outside for walks to provide fresh air and exercise. Children in the infant room will be placed in strollers; children in the older rooms will walk while holding onto a handled rope. We walk in three different places: the parking lots on the premises, the soccer field on the east portion of the property, or the subdivision directly to our north.

Please sign and date this permission slip, it allows us to take your child walks off the immediate premises to the designated locations specified above.
